MIDLAND DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIPS.
 STIRLING
 23rd. JAN. 1971.

Brown cool and convincing Midland title winner

By RON MARSHALL

Jim Brown, the 18-year-old Bellshill Academy schoolboy, ran his way back into the headlines on Saturday with an easy-looking win in the Midland District cross-country championship. The course, at Stirling University's playing fields, was as severe as any on the Scottish circuit, but the lightweight Brown skimmed over the mud and stones as if he were on a summer track.

He covered the six miles in 30min. 4sec. and finished looking almost as cool as he had been at the start. Coming home over 60 yards behind was Norman Morrison (Shettleston), a 1500 metres runner in the Commonwealth Games, and about the same distance behind him came Alistair Johnston. Those three had dominated the race virtually from the outset.

Surprised

Brown, looking almost too young and spare of flesh to be a senior winner, flicked the caked mud off his body as he expressed surprise at the way the race had unfolded.

"I thought the pace was kind of slow. With only three of us clear of the field after the first lap (two miles) I just decided to go to the front and see how things went. Norman seemed to drop back and I knew the race was mine."

Nobody, least of all Jim Brown, has been fooled into thinking this was a high-class contest. With Lachie Stewart, Dick Wedlock, and Ian McCafferty among the most notable absentees, it was perhaps the weakest senior field for long enough. Brown, rather than talk about the race, preferred to think about his International contest next Sunday in San Sebastian, over the same course as the International championship will be run on March 20.

He and his clubmate Ronnie McDonald, winner of the Nigel Barge event two weeks ago and sixth on Saturday, have another important date in mind — the English championships in March. Because of different rules, the Scots are eligible to run as youths in England but are considered as juniors (the older age group) in Scotland. Both must have distinct chances of lifting the English title, as another Scot, Colin Falconer, did a year ago.

None of Saturday's races produced nail-biting finishes. Laurie Reilly was a splendid winner of the youths' three miles, reaching the tape 18sec. clear of his runner-up. He is confirming his promise on the track with solid results over the country. Another bright prospect won the senior boys' race, Jim Thomson (Law and District). He was even farther ahead, having 22sec. in hand after the one-and-three-quarter miles.

Outstanding

No less outstanding was the first boy home in the junior boys' race. Rejoicing in the euphonic name Nathaniel Muir, he had, as one bystander put it, either to be a good fighter or a good runner with a tag like that. He certainly was the latter, scampering over the line as if he could have kept going all day.

And finally, a plea from one of the many who used the changing facilities at the pavilion near the finish — for the first time in 20 years' cross-country he has lost his outdoor shoes and running shorts. Anyone with the wrong shoes or shorts should telephone 041-774 4389. Results:—
