

One-point win for East

The East defeated the West, by one point over 5 races in the women's cross-country contest at Pitreavie. East took the team race in three of the five age groups and also supplied the senior individual winner, Violet Hope (Edinburgh University), who in the absence of Judith Shepherd, had an easy victory over teammate Kerry Robinson with Alice Linton a very close third for the West.

West won the senior team race and took the girls' team race by a wide margin supplying the first three finishers. Details:
