Scottish Representative Match

At Stirling, December 13th

THE Scottish CC Union had an easy victory in the annual representative match at Stirling, as with six in the first nine and a total of 27, they had a 45 points margin over Northern Ireland. Chris Robison continued his fine recent form by holding off Terry

Mitchell in a sprint finish, after Mitchell prised open a gap on the second lap before Robison's finishing burst. Special mention must be made of Alastair Russell, the first Junior. Eighth overall, he lost a shoe in the muddy terrain with 2½ miles still to run, but was fifth counter for the SCCU. The Scottish women's team filled the first three places to win by an equally convincing margin, 11 points to the Universities' 36, led by Christine Price, a veteran of the 1970 Commonwealth Games, and backed well by Penny Rother and Sandra Branney.
