Scottish Borders Council	Teviotdale Harriers Club
British Red Cross	Hawick Common Good Fund

Road Running and Cross Country Commission

To-day's event is the last of the current season's championships. It is always a great pleasure to attend the Veteran's Championships and I am looking forward to a happy day at Hawick this year.

I would like everyone involved in the organisation and presentation of the event to know that your work is appreciated greatly and on behalf of the Commission I thank you most sincerely. I hope you all enjoy meeting old friends and renewing past rivalries on what is bound to be an arduous course.

Eleanor Gunstone
Convener
Road Running and Cross Country Commission

Town of Hawick

As Honorary Provost of Hawick, I am delighted to welcome you all again to our beautiful Border land for the National Veterans Cross Country Championships. I believe that this is the second occasion you have been here and it is a great honour for Hawick that the championships have been brought back again to us.

Although I am not a runner myself as you can see, I can well imagine that the countryside and the various types of terrain that you will race will be an interesting challenge. I hope that some of you will have time to notice the view (remember not to slow down though).

I would like to record my appreciation to our local running club, the Teviotdale Harriers in in all the steps it has taken to assist this Championship event. Our town is very proud of the long history of sporting success, which the Teviotdale Harriers over the generations have achieved, both at individual and club level.

As well as being here for the championships itself, I do hope that you will be able to take some time to explore this area at your leisure and to return again and see us. This is an area of history and it has much for the visitor to come and see.

I wish you all well with you endeavours in the Championships

Thomas Hogg
Hon Provost
Hawick

Scottish Athletics Federation

The SAF National Veteran Cross Country Championships is one of my favourite events of the year. While it marks the pinnacle of veteran competition for serious competitors in the Scottish 1999 Veteran Cross Country season, it also allows others to renew old acquaintances and rivalries. Many stories of past glories will be retold during the day. As President it is my pleasure to welcome you to this festival of running and to wish you all individual success in your event.

For this year's Championships we return to Hawick. Staging these Championships takes a great deal of careful preparation to ensure a successful day. Our grateful thanks therefore go to the Championship Convener, Alex Jackson, the local organising committee, and all those who give their time voluntarily in order to ensure excellent Championships facilities for the athletes.

Finally my congratulations to all our winners today whether it is as a champion, in achieving a best performance or in competing. Cross country is all about "duffing up your mates". I hope to be doing some of that along with you today.

Ron Morrison
President
Scottish Athletics Federation

Teviotdale Harriers

On behalf of Teviotdale Harriers, welcome to Stitches School, Hawick for the National Veteran's Cross Country Championships. Hopefully you will enjoy the course today.

Teviotdale Harriers are renowned for traditional cross country courses, just one small hill. So enjoy the race male and female, young and old vets, and enjoy the hospitality

John P. Marsh
President
Teviotdale Harriers
