

record field of over 150 competitors that he was out to improve on last year's second place. He was over 80m ahead of Martin Craven, the holder, as the runners started on the first of three laps on the open, exposed Irvine Moor.

After a winter of fine running, when he picked up most of the Vets prizes in open events, Brown climaxed a fine comeback to athletics after a lengthy absence with a fine victory, by over 200m, from Craven. Brown will be 50 soon and in the same age-group as Bill Stoddart, who lost out in a close-fought finish with Bill Scally in the final mile. Scally led a strong Shettleston team to victory, defeating Edinburgh Southern, winners for the past three years, with Clyde Valley close behind.
