

SCOTTISH C.C. CHAMPIONS

GREAT RACE.

VICTORY FOR THE WEST SCOTLAND CLUB.

(SPECIAL BY "PACE.")

The twentieth contest for Scottish honours, team and individual, was on Saturday, July 21, run from the Glasgow Agricultural Grounds, Scotstoun, a set of quarters admirably adapted for the details inseparable from such an event. The track, too, of enclosure was perfection. Edinburgh ran full; Bellahouston wags three men; Garscube had to run without Girvan, Hood, Kennedy, Smith, and Connell; were short of Allan, Black, Currie, Martin, and Walls; Motherwell Y.M.C.A. nine men, and West ran without calling in reserve. The gathering immediately before the start was, we should say, the largest since the first race run twenty years ago.

THE RACE.

The trail lay once round the track enclosure, out to the open country beyond the gate, up hill, following the paper, and back to the ground by the casterly. The teams were drawn to their places up for the start in the following order: front line, Clydesdale; 2, Motherwell park; 4, Bellahouston; 5, Individuals; 6, Garscube; 7, West of Scotland; 8, Edinburgh.

As the crowd of lightly-clad athletes of the exit the leaders were Restan, Robertson, Sam Stevenson. Once in, however, the back-liners proved up to the contest set in earnestly. Hughes made to the front, as did also Kennedy and Young and Russell entered upon the renewal of their race, but the latter was soon overtaken and on returning to the field the order of running the gate was—McKenna, Rankin, Stevenson, Somerville, Hughes, Restan, Middleton, Elliott, Kennedy, Young. Once more they ran to the front, now the quidines stationed at various points of the course began the placing process. Soon the favourites moved up to the front places, and on returning to the field were running up to the grand stand, where the judges and officials, hearty cheers and appearance of the winner, Rankin.
