At Edinburgh, February 19th

First Senior Title for McGafferty

IAN MCGAFFERTY ran a well judged race to record his first senior title win in the Scottish Cross-Country Championships at Currie High School grounds on the western outskirts of Edinburgh. This performance on the fairly flat though softish and testing circuit, churned up by the earlier four races, was most encouraging and he looked to be in good shape for bigger things ahead. At the finish he was some 30 yards ahead of the holder and three-times winner (1962, 1970 and 1971) Jim Alder, who was thus deprived of a hat-trick in the event.

From the start it was obvious that the race for first place lay between these two fine runners as they separated themselves from the rest of the pack early on. For a little over two laps McGafferty led the way but in the third Alder surged ahead amid excitement and kept in front till near the end when the faster finishing McGafferty outpaced his rival to the tape and victory after a tense but exciting duel. There was just a suggestion that Alder had made his effort too soon against a speedier opponent whose judgment on this occasion was admirably sound.

Jim Brown ran most impressively to win the junior title by the wide margin of 150 yards. In fact Brown, a great competitor at all times, went into the lead from the start and running with increasing power and confidence outstripped his rivals for a runaway victory. Ronnie MacDonald, the holder, finished well away in third place behind Paul Bannon. On this form Jim Brown must be in with a great chance in the Junior International at Cambridge next month.

Another young runner who looks to have a good future is Mark Watt who easily retained the senior boys' title; while Jim Lawson ran intelligently to success in the youths' event.

Even without Dick Wedlock, off with flu, and with Lachie Stewart out of form, Shettleston easily retained the senior team championship. Over the other grades, team honours were evenly distributed.

Malcolm Thomas Scores in Welsh Championships

At Swansea, February 19th

IN perfect weather and ground conditions Malcolm Thomas treated the sizeable crowd to an exhibition of power house front running to score his third—and most decisive—Senior win. Thomas forged ahead at the start and each of the five laps of 1½ miles were reeled off without any slackening of effort, bringing him home a staggering 80 seconds ahead of the next man.

On this form the English National or indeed the International itself are not outside Malcolm's grasp. There was a race-long battle for second place between Cardiff's Bernard Plain and Bernard Hayward which was finally resolved in Plain's favour. Plain's record in this event over the past three seasons reads 4th (1970), 3rd (1971), 2nd (1972). Perhaps next year Bernard? Cardiff once again took the team title, and the selectors later announced the following team to compete at Cambridge.

M. Thomas (capt.), B. Plain, B. Hayward, A. Cass, J. Jones, D. Fowles, N. Evans, Dic Evans and A. Ashton.

CHURCHILL FELLOWSHIP GRANTS

Mary Peters, Anita Neil, Barbara Inkpen and Peter Gabbett have all received Winston Churchill Fellowship Grants to further their training in Olympic year. Inkpen plans to train intensively in Spain and Gabbett will spend 10 weeks in the USA working with 1968 Olympic Decathlon Champion Bill Toomey, and aims to take in the AAU Championship event. Training at Crystal Palace has been excellent recently and in the Indoor Area he has been clearing 4.34/14'3" in the pole vault consistently.
