J. G. CHERRY

PRESIDENT

SCOTTISH CROSS COUNTRY UNION

It is with great pleasure that I extend a very warm welcome to all on this our 88th National Championships.

The popularity of our Sport is obviously growing every year. This can be seen by the record entries for this year's championships. With the increasing numbers it means greater responsibility falling on our dedicated band of Officials, to whom I extend my sincere thanks.

On behalf of the Scottish Cross Country Union I would like to thank the National Westminster Bank, "The Action Bank," for their generous action in sponsoring today's championships. Also the City of Edinburgh District Council for providing the facilities at the Jack Kane Centre.

As President may I wish everyone involved today — Competitors, Organisers, Officials and Spectators — an enjoyable and successful event.

T. F. SHEILS

MANAGER

NATIONAL WESTMINSTER BANK

The National Westminster Bank is pleased to be associated with this event and would like to extend best wishes to everyone involved in the Championships.

JOHN McKAY

LORD PROVOST OF EDINBURGH

It gives me great pleasure both as Lord Provost of the host city, and as Honorary Patron of the Scottish National Cross Country Union, to extend a very warm and sincere welcome to the competitors, officials, and supporters, on the occasion of the 88th National Cross Country Championships.

The Championships were last held here in Edinburgh in 1983, prior to which there had been a gap running back to 1969. I am delighted that we are hosts again so quickly.

It is especially pleasing to me that the Championships are to be held at the Jack Kane Centre, named after the first Lord Provost drawn from the Labour Party in the City.

I would like to take this opportunity of wishing everyone an enjoyable and successful afternoon's sport.

NOTES

If it's anything to do with money
you'll find no one works harder
on your account
than NatWest.

At home or away, business or private, big or small,
now or next year, income or outgoings.
So why not call in your local NatWest Branch,
where the staff will be pleased to welcome you.
