FOREWORD

It gives me considerable pleasure to provide the foreword for the programme for the National Cross Country Championships.

Callendar Park, the venue for the championships, provides a beautiful backcloth for this competition and I am sure that the competitors and spectators will enjoy the scenery and take time to avail themselves of the facilities that the park provides.

The park is being increasingly used for cross country events and indeed was the venue for the championships in recent years. It is therefore a pleasure to welcome the Cross Country Union and the runners back to Falkirk and I wish everyone a successful and enjoyable day of sport.

JOHN DOCHERTY, OSt.J., J.P.
Provost, Falkirk District Council.

BILL ROBERTSON

PRESIDENT

SCOTTISH CROSS COUNTRY UNION

I am pleased to welcome you on behalf of the Scottish Cross Country Union, to Callendar Park, Falkirk, for the 90th Scottish Cross Country Championships. They were last held here in 1981 and I am sure that today's events will be as popular as they were then.

Our thanks go to Falkirk District Council for their valued assistance and co-operation. To our Convener, Peter Faulds, his organising committee and Falkirk Victoria Harriers, I extend the grateful thanks of the S.C.C.U. for their considerable efforts in organising the championships. We must not forget the many officials and stewards who freely assist the smooth running of the championships.

Competition this afternoon will be of a high calibre. Not only will all events be keenly contested for individual and team awards, but also for improvement of personal performances. Senior and Junior athletes have the additional incentive of gaining selection at the World Cross Country Championships in Warsaw next month.

I hope everyone has an enjoyable day's sport.
