

1972 SCOTTISH WOMEN'S ROAD RELAY CHAMPIONSHIPS

Victoria Park, who successfully promoted their first women's cross-country event last November, will stage the first Scottish Women's Road Relay Championships at Scotstoun on January 29th.

SCOTTISH WOMEN'S ROAD RELAY CHAMPIONSHIPS

At Scotstoun, January 29th

Host club Victoria Park were expected to challenge for the senior title but were struck by injuries and could not field a team. Although Greenock Rankin Park failed to finish, Pat Spence won the tankard for the fastest lap. In the Intermediate event, Moira O'Boyle, now eligible for Victoria Park, took over in fifth place for lap three but surged round to hand over a lead to colleague Janet Higgins, who held off Strathclyde's Robina Aitken. Pitreavie dominated the Girls race, taking first and third places.
