
Adrian Jackson's Third Successive Win

For the third time in succession, Adrian Jackson, Edinburgh University, won the Edinburgh and District League six-mile cross-country race at Kirkcaldy—beating J. Devlin (Edinburgh Eastern Harriers) by over 100 yards in 31 mins 2 secs.

Edinburgh Southern Harriers won the team event, but the league championship has been won by the students with an aggregate of 212 points. Edinburgh Southern (229) are second, and Edinburgh Eastern (275) third.
